FIFTIETH OREGON ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

the destructiveness of the saloon. It costs our nation $1,300,000,000 each year and is responsible for the destruction of 100,000 lives, while the South African war, during its three years of existence cost $1,120,000,000 and 26,000 lives. Licensed ruin is responsible for four-fifths of all the crime, three-fifths of all the idleness, and four-fifths of all the charity calls.

The enemy is in our midst and effects our homes, the church and the nation, and unless the nation kills the liquor traffic, the liquor traffic will kill the nation. The progress of the church is retarded by this great barrier, the liquor traffic.

After Rev. Lockhart's address, the audience was favored by a selection, entitled "Vote as you Pray," by male voices. They were recalled by the audience and rendered another very pleasing selection.

Rev. Greenlee was then introduced and gave a very interesting and practical address. He said "This subject is an old one, but that is nothing against it, for it is a living issue, and as long as it confronts us, we must deal with it." We need a recognition of the character of the liquor traffic, and then after this a promulgation of the truth. Then let there be an unceasing and uncompromising hostility to the liquor traffic. The chairman made some closing remarks and the second day of the conference closed.

Saturday morning devotional services were conducted by Dr. Fisher. Scripture lesson, Matt. 16, beginning at the 21st verse.

Bishop Cranston took the chair at 9 a. m. The secretary read the journal of Friday's proceedings, which were approved. The effective elders were called and made report of their work for the year.

Dr. Leslie of the Baptist church and Dr. Holt, fraternal delegate from the Presbyterian Synod of Oregon, were introduced. Dr. Holt addressed the conference.

On motion, D. T. Summerville was elected fraternal delegate to the Presbyterian Synod, which convenes in Grants Pass next week.

Classes were called. W. B. Pepper, John B. Stark, James K. Hawkins, Lew Davis, David L. Fields, Edwin B. Lockhart and William F. Rogers in studies of the first year, reported their work, passed in their studies and advanced to the studies of the second year.

William S. Young was continued on trial and left without appointment to attend school.

E. H. Bryant and W. W. Edmondson were continued on studies of the first year.

Lewis H. Pederson, James Moore, Charles T. McPherson and Eugene C. Alford, who have been in the studies of the fourth year were reported as having passed their examinations and were elected to elder's orders.

M. L. Hardingham was continued in the studies of the fourth year. Franklin C. Butler was located at his own request. Henry L. St. Clair passed his examinations and as he is already an elder, no action was taken in his case. Fred J. Brown was continued in the studies of the fourth year, and on motion the bishop was requested to appoint him to the superintendency of the Sticksy Indian Mission Home. No action was taken in the case of William P. Drew.

John P. Naugle, and Robert C. Lee were continued in the studies of the third year. Clarence A. House, James C. Gregory, David H. Leech and Andrew Monroe completed the third year course of study and were advanced to the studies of the fourth year.

Dr. Fisher announced to the conference that a layman had offered to pay for 200 copies of the advocate for the rest of the year. August F. Buche in studies of the second year was discontinued at his own request. W. F. McClure was continued on trial in the studies of the second year.

A motion by Rev. Kerr prevailed that when we adjourn, we adjourn until 2 o'clock. Dr. Coleman, president of Willamette University, was introduced. The credentials of Chan Sing Kai were presented and he was admitted. He comes from the Methodist church in Canada and it is contemplated to place him in the Chinese Mission in Portland.

The following supernumerary preachers were continued in that relation: N. S. Buckner, L. G. Cochran, D. McLachlan, E. C. Graft, W. F. McClure and J. J. Walter. S. A. Starr, a supernumerary, asked to be made effective and was referred to the committee on conference relations. W. S. Holcomb and C. M. Rice were granted supernumerary relations.

The afternoon session convened at 2 o'clock as per adjournment.

The following supernumerary preachers were called, their character passed and continued in that relation: E. B. Horner, J. Holberg, J. H. Royal, T. F. Royal, J. W. Miller Robert Booth, G. W. Rook, J. R. Hammond, N. Doane, D. L. Staudling, C. Alderson, David Wolfe, F. H. Calder, W. J. Gardner, R. T. Baldwin, N. M. Skipworth and C. C. Stratton. J. W. Spragler's relation as changed from supernumerary to effective and transferred to the Columbia river conference.

Bert A. Bristol, a candidate for admission into full connection in the conference was addressed by the bishop on the "Elements of success in the ministry." It was a masterly and practical address which was profitable to every preacher present. After answering the disciplinary questions Mr. Bristol was admitted into full membership having been previously ordained a deacon.

Dr. J. R. T. Lathrop, chairman of the committee on education, read a preliminary report in relation to Willamette University. Conference then went into executive session, in which business was transacted that concerns the members of the conference alone. Conference then adjourned until 8:30 Monday morning.

Saturday Evening General Odell presided. After a song by the choir and congregation Dr. Driver led in prayer and an anthem was rendered by the choir. The first 12 verses of the fifth chapter of Matthew were read by General Odell.

Rev. Bennett of Woodburn was then introduced and delivered the annual conference missionary sermon upon the theme "The Master's Expectation." The sermon was very carefully prepared, well delivered and highly appreciated by the large audience.

man. He can be answerable to no law except the law that was put into him by his creator. As nothing can be gotten out of the machine except what was put into it, so nothing can be gotten out of man except what was put into him. We judge of the purpose of a machine by what it is capable of doing. Man is capable of thinking, loving, growing, worshipping and of having dominion and in these we see the purposes of his creation. But man is thinking what he ought not to think, he is loving what he ought not to love; he is worshipping what he ought not to worship. In the face of these facts we have the declaration of God that "What I made was good when I made it and it is good forevermore."

"Here is a maze of darkness. Where do we get light? Let us look up. It is unthinkable that the Almighty should have to learn by experiment. It is blasphemy against reason to think of God as an adventurer. Such a declaration as the text, signifies that there must have been something in the plan of God to prevent eternal destruction. God was not surprised and there was no confusion in Heaven at the fall of man."

"There was never a moment in which the race was in danger of eternal ruin. God had provided such ample means of grace that the fallen might recover himself to the image from which he had fallen. God could not have made man so that he could have worked out a glorious destiny."

try and membership of the Methodist Episcopal church. His withdrawal was granted with a request that he return his credentials to the secretary of the conference. The conference then proceeded to select a place for the next conference. Grace church and Century church of Portland and Eugene invited the conference. The bishop extended an invitation for the conference to meet at Salem. The churches in Portland and Eugene withdrew their invitations and Salem was made the unanimous choice of the conference.

At 10:40 the bishop called Dr. Wirt to the chair and he with his cabinet withdrew. The following committees reported: Auditing, Stewards, Treasurer, Epworth League, Twentieth Century Forward Movement, Reformers, Visitors to Willamette University, Indian Mission and W. H. M. S. and W. F. M. S. Episcopal Fund and Chinese Work.

The treasurer's report showed a very encouraging condition of things. The collections for benevolences and claims, with the exception of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, all show an increase, the total collection being $17766 and the total increase being $5779.

Monday afternoon, the committee on Equalizing Traveling Expenses to and from the seat of conference, reported. Reports from the following committees were also heard: Benevolence, Sunday schools, Books and Periodicals and Education. For the purpose of equalizing traveling expenses the committee recommended the organization of a "Brotherhood of Travelers" in which the traveling expenses of the members of the brotherhood shall be pooled.

Rev. W. S. Holt, Synodical Missionary of the Presbyterian church of Oregon spoke in behalf of co-operation in establishing churches in new territory, to prevent the crowding of too many churches into small communities. No action, however, was taken by the conference.

Conference Stewards distributed the amounts apportioned to conference claimants. The report of the committee on education had reference to our theological schools: the woman's school in Baltimore, the Board of Education, the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, The Sautman Academy and Willamette University. A resolution in reference to Willamette University pledged the ministers of the Oregon conference to raise at least $1 per member throughout the conference.

After other business of minor importance the appointments for the coming year were read as follows:

EUGENE DISTRICT. T. L. Ford—Presiding elder. Albany—M. C. Wire. Amity—T. L. Jones. Brownsville—M. T. Wirt. Corvallis—F. L. Moore. Cottage Grove—R. C. Lee. Creswell—C. A. Hensel. Dallas—J. F. Zimmerman. Drain—James Moore. Eugene—R. F. Rowland and E. C. Alford.

There is no such thing as baptismal regeneration. The candidate for regeneration must place himself into the hands of his creator for regeneration.

"The witness of the Spirit is simply the evidence that the soul receives that it is alive. The rest that the soul receives that comes to Christ is the result of the work of the Holy Spirit that enables him to live in harmony with the laws of his being."

It was a great sermon. Sunday afternoon the bishop ordained Lewi H. Pederson, James Moore and Charles T. McPherson elders. After the ordination services, memorial services were conducted. Bishop Cranston gave a memorial address on the life and character of sister Thoburn, wife of Bishop Thoburn. Memoir of sister J. W. Miller was read by Dr. Driver. Memoir of sister Nickerson, wife of L. M. Nickerson was read by Rev. T. F. Royal. Memoir of sister Roberts, wife of the late Wm. Roberts, was read by Rev. Parsons. Memoir of sister Crandall, wife of Rev. Crandall was read by Rev. Snyder. Memoir of sister Gue, wife of the late Rev. Gue, was read by Dr. Hollingshead. Memoir of sister Mary Lee was read by Rev. Jones.

No member of the annual conference died during the year. Sunday evening the Epworth League anniversary was appropriately observed. The features of the service were addresses by Rev. J. R. T. Lathrop and Rev. L. T. Moore.

The Educational Anniversary was observed immediately after the addresses Bishop Cranston presiding. He introduced Dr. Coleman, now president of Willamette University, a member of Troy conference of New York. At the close of his interesting address Dr. Coleman announced that during the day he had received a pledge of $1000 on the debt and $10,000 for the endowment of Willamette University.

On Monday morning, after devotional services conducted by the bishop, the conference proceeded to business. The following candidates for reception on trial were presented: M. T. Wirt, Roy R. PIANO AND VIOLIN CONCERT.

On Thursday, October 9th, Mrs. Susie Fennell Pipes, violinist, and Miss C. L. Higgins, pianist, will give a concert at the Opera House. Upon the appointment of Mrs. Pipes as violin instructor in the university school of music the Eugene Register of August 3rd had this to say:

"The services of Mrs. Susie Fennell Pipes have been secured as instructor in the violin, an announcement that students of the violin will receive with pleasure. The university school of music has never before been able to offer to students instruction on this instrument, but believes that the demand justifies this enlargement of its activity. Mrs. Pipes is a pupil of Ernest O. Spitzner of Portland, from whom there is not a better artist in the northwest."

Miss Higgins is a first class pianist in every sense of the word, a finished artist. She is now engaged as instructor in the St. Helens Hall at Portland.

Do not fail to attend this concert as it will be the musical event of the season.

Prices are 35 and 50 cents.
